

DINNER WITH POLISH FOLK SHOW

Kraków is famous for its unique history and rich cultural heritage. It is said that the magic of this city comes from a remarkable harmony between tradition and modernity. Tonight we would like you to become familiar with the richness and diversity of Polish culture and cuisine, by offering you an opportunity to attend a thrilling dinner with folk group performance, which will add splendour to the evening.

During this unique event you will experience a memorable show of main Polish national dances such as: Krakowiak, Polonez, Mazur, Oberek and Kujawiak, performed by passionate group of people in traditional regional costumes. At the same time, our restaurant team will make every effort to satisfy your cuisine demands, by providing homemade Polish specials and delicacies.

Tradycja Restaurant is located in historic interiors of the Pinocińska Tenement, which name derives from one of its greatest owners – born in Italy – Hieronim Pinocci. His contribution into Polish tradition and culture has become an inspiration to combine two trends of culinary art. The flavors of Poland and Italian cuisines complement one another splendidly, guaranteeing an exceptional celebration for your taste buds!
